J. W. Boyce left here last Tuesday morning for his home in Scranton, Pa. He was compelled to give up his studies on account of his ill health. We sincerely hope that he will soon be recovered and return among us again.

TWO WEDDINGS.

Four young people leave the State of single Wretchedness.

Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock, Rev. F. E. Moore spoke the words which united in holy wedlock two of our well known young people. The bride was Miss Eva Anderson, who has been one of the popular clerks in A. K. Harper's store for some months and the groom was Joe A. McNutt, the youngest partner in the Hardware firm of McNutt Bros. & Moore. The young people left immediately for Atlanta on their wedding tour. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's brother, Thurston Anderson. Only close relatives and friends being present. The TIMES wishes the young people much joy.

At least a thousand people crowded into the large Presbyterian church to witness the marriage of Rev. F. E. Moore and Miss Jennie Walker. Rev. J. H. McConnell, assisted by Revs. Creswell and Eakin, performed the ceremony. Promptly at 7:30 o'clock Miss Clemens began to play the wedding march and the prospective bride and groom came down the left aisle and after the ceremony left the church by the right aisle. The relatives and a few friends repaired to the home of the groom, where the wedding supper awaited them. The bride, who was born and raised in this country, is well known and has a host of friends who wish her life's full measure of happiness. The groom, who is pastor of the Presbyterian church, is one of the most popular young men in our town. He is an earnest whole-souled christian man and highly respected by everyone. They leave shortly for Atlanta, but will be at home to friends after Dec. 19 and will keep open house on New Year's day from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

A new lot of bed room sets at C. Pfanz's. Also some new center tables. Come and look at them before buying elsewhere.

When you want fresh meats call on me. I always have the very best and do not allow any one to sell meats cheaper than I do.—Chas Gentry.

Mrs. S. H. Beals, of near Unita, who fell from a ladder and received what was considered quite serious injuries is reported to be getting along nicely.

We are under obligations to Comptroller Harris for a copy of the Tennessee Tax digest for 1895. It is quite a useful book to those interested in the state's revenue.

W. A. Province, the many who forged orders in the name of Esq. Trotter and secured the money on then, has waived examination until the next term of court.

Solon Mayo and mother, of Monroe County, have moved into our town. We welcome them and hope they will find their stay among us both profitable and pleasant.

Rev. John S. Eakin, of New Market, has, we see by an exchange, been seriously ill, but is now improving. He is a Blount County boy and a graduate of our College.

Home cures are positive proof—Volcaline is proving its self right here a positive cure for lameness, stiff joints and all forms of Rheumatism.—George and Montgomery Druggists.

AT W. T. PARHAM'S

Mesdames Gates and Kaiser Receive Maryville Friends.

Mrs. C. T. Cates and Mrs. H. O. Kaiser, of Knoxville, gave a reception to their Maryville friends, Thursday, at the home of their father, W. T. Parham, on High street.

The elderly ladies were present from 3 to 6 o'clock and the young people from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mesdames George, Moore, Goddard, W. E. and C. L. Parham and Misses Cates, Hannum, Tedford and Engel. In evening dress the ladies presented a beautiful appearance.

The large house was prettily arranged for the occasion. The parlor was done in blue and white, the library, in pink, the sitting-room, in red, and the dining room in yellow. Beautiful Chrysanthemums and roses, tastily arranged, formed a greater part of the decorations. Lighted by electricity the house looked brilliant and dazzling, containing as it did so many fair women and brave men, for Maryville, with all her chivalry and beauty, was there.

Dainty and palatable refreshments were served in several courses.

The Athenian Orchestra added greatly to the pleasure of the evening by furnishing music, which filled every room with sweetest melody. The affair was largely attended there being over 200 guests present during the afternoon and evening. All present were delighted and there have been no pleasanter occasions in Maryville.

Mrs. Robt. Chandler, from Sevier county, has purchased the Nick Russell farm, three miles west of our town. Chas. Eagleton has owned the farm for some time.

Lawyers Culton and Cates went to Tuckaleechee, Wednesday, to take a deposition in the Lequire case. Messrs. Jim McKinzie H. D. Singleton and McFarland accompanied them.

Maj. Ben Cunningham, of Maryville Allen Bales, of Kizer Station, and Mrs. Belle Shelden, of Unita, were here Sunday to be present at the funeral of W. C. Davis.—Athens Post.

Volcaline is not simply a temporary relief for rheumatism but we do know it to be a positive cure, and are proving it daily right here in Maryville.—George & Montgomery, Druggists.

James the only son of Mary Gains, died Tuesday night of Typhoid-Pneumonia. He was a young man of good character and has been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church for three years.

Do you want a cook book? We will give you the "Rural Home Cook Book," of 350 pages, containing over 1000 receipts for only 25cts. If you will get your husband to pay for the TIMES one year in advance.

Remember that I am still in line with Christian Candies, Nus and Confectionaries for the Holiday trade. I think I have the best stock in this line that I ever had, will sell as low as the lowest come and see, opposite the Court House.—G. A. Toole.

Rev. Irl Hicks, the best weather prophet in the country, says He who provides bountifully against severe winter storms and great cold, even far to the South, will find that all outlays at all within reason's bounds will bring him corresponding reward.

For sale A small farm of about eighteen or twenty acres, 2 miles from town on the Niles Ferry Road. A good orchard and nice laying land, one acre of young timber, a desirable location. Call at the TIMES office for further information.

We will hereafter have a department containing news from the Friends School as this is getting to be a very popular institution. Twenty-eight new students for the winter term making a total of Ninety-three, with a prospect for more.

Maryville College

The Second term will open on Thursday, January 2, 1896.

Those who have been students in previous years need merely to be assured that the customary high standard of work will be maintained. Those who have not been students heretofore, may secure all needed information by addressing.—The Registrar, Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn.

The K. & A. road is now in better condition than ever before. Every station between here and Knoxville has a neat depot and steel rails are being rapidly laid in place of the old iron ones now so nearly worn out. Supt. Hood is always considering the comfort of the public.

Our readers will notice advertisement of Electropoise in another column, calling attention to reduction in rental rates to $5.00 for two months. The Electropoise is especially recommended for the ailments that are most prevalent in winter, and we have published many testimonials of its wonderful cures.

The Athenian Literary Society will give its annual mid-winter entertainment at Columbian Hall next Monday night Dec. 16th. The boys are endeavoring to sustain the past reputation of the society and will no doubt, give one of the best entertainments ever given in Maryville. Let everybody be present. Monday night at 7 o'clock.

Next Sunday Kin Takahashi will present the Y. M. C. A. and Gymnasium building movement to the Fourth Presbyterian Sunday school of Knoxville. He will leave Knoxville Monday morning for the eastern States to solicit funds for our much needed building. All the friends are kindly requested to remember him in prayer.

Ask some men for an advertisement or a few locals and they will tell you they don't believe in advertising—a paper is never read. Let one of them be caught kissing his neighbor's wife or struggling along with a small jug, and if the printing office is in the garret of a 17-story building he will climb to the top and beg the editor to keep it out of the paper. But still people say a paper isn't read.

The Ladies of the M. E. church desire to express their sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parham for opening their spacious and elegant home to the "Birthday Social", also for their many Courtesies and untiring effort which contributed so largely to the splendid success of the social last Saturday night. To the very large company in attendance we express our gratitude for their presence and liberal response to our invitations.

The "Evening of Illustrated Song" at Columbian Hall was a very entertaining affair. The programme consisted of songs illustrated by tableaux and many beautiful effects were produced. The fire was allowed to go out before the entertainment was half over and those present had to shiver through the rest of the evening and this detracted much from the enjoyment of the programme. Such an entertainment means a great deal of work and much credit is due the ladies, who have the interests of the Industrial Home at heart.

Question Answered.

You can buy the same salt at A. K. Harper's for seventy cents that you pay the other fellow seventy five cents for.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the M. E. Church gave a "Birthday Social" at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parham last Saturday night. This is a novel and profitable way to spend an evening. Invitations were sent out, enclosing little sacks, in which the ones invited are expected to put as many cents as they are years old. Of course this is to be kept secret by those in authority. A nice lunch was served and the neat sum of sixty dollars was realized. This amount will be used in decorating the inside of the church. Music was furnished by some of the ladies present and an enjoyable social time was had by all present. Much praise is due the ladies for the successful outcome of the evening.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

F. E. MOORE Pastor.

Prof. S. T. Wilson, D. D., will occupy this pulpit next Sabbath morning, Dec. 15." Prof. H. A. Goff will conduct the evening services.

The "Birthday Party" given at the Columbian Hall for the benefit of the church was a substantial success. The proceeds amounted to $78.43. All present seemed to have a pleasant time.

The members of the Sabbath School are requested to prepare special donations to the Blount Co. Industrial Home. A committee from the church and S. S. will be at Columbian Hall on Christmas morning to receive gifts of money, provisions, books, toys, appropriate clothing, etc., which they will convey to the Home with our loving Christmas greeting. This notice will be reported from the pulpit, and we trust the plan will be enthusiastically approved by the entire congregation.
